MEET THE CHEFS

CHEF MANNY GARDUNO

Chef Manny developed his love for food during his childhood in Mexico. His Mother and Grandmother taught him all about the unique flavors in Mexican cuisine. After arriving in the US from Mexico, Chef Manny honed his craft by working over the next 30 years at various Las Vegas casinos including the MGM, the Mirage and the Venetian. The knowledge he gained allowed him to open his very own catering company. Not only does he operate his catering company at Lakeside Village, he also owns Buena Vista Kitchen. We are excited that he will be adding a new restaurant, The Daily Bread, here at Lakeside Village!

CHEF SCOTT COMMINGS

Chef Scott Commings grew up on a farm in rural Wisconsin, which inspired his life long passion for food. He received his Hospitality Management Degree from Purdue University, then it was off to culinary school.

Success followed with multiple head chef jobs and continued training, followed by a stint on Fox's Hell's Kitchen series. Scott would eventually become the winner of Season 12 and go on to become the head chef at Gordon Ramsey's Pub & Grill at Caesar's Palace. Scott has since been involved in many culinary projects in Las Vegas. We are excited to have him and the Daily Bread here at Lakeside Village!
